BankWork$ Career Training

Valley-wide Classes

helping you find a career

BankWork$ is an entirely free program that prepares participants for a meaningful career in the financial services sector. All classes are offered for free through scholarships generously sponsored by program partners.

This eight-week, intensive jobs-training program covers essential skills needed to succeed in the financial services industry, including: business etiquette, banking regulations, handling cash, and preparing for the interview.

Participants in this program are able to secure stable employment, better pay, and advancement opportunities. This helps households better provide for themselves, their families, and gives them a chance to get ahead.
