life-changing services for families

A New Leaf's La Mesita Family Homeless Shelter has 16 units and is the only shelter in the East Valley that allows parents to bring their children with them, a critically needed resource for families in crisis.

Families are allowed to stay together and have the unique comfort of a private apartment in which they can lock the door and know their children will be safe.

When a family arrives at the La Mesita Family Homeless Shelter, they are immediately provided with all the essentials of a home: food boxes, basic sanitary needs, and fresh linens on the beds. Families can stay up to 120 days in 1 or 2 bedroom apartments. Over 50% of those served by the shelter are children.

The La Mesita Family Homeless Shelter delivers comprehensive services meant to assist families with becoming stable and secure in their housing and basic needs.

These include: workforce development, financial literacy classes and coaching, after school program, Head Start program, behavioral health services for children and families, assistance accessing healthcare, legal aid, transportation, computer lab and training.
