helping you find employment

A New Leaf's Workforce Services program assists all job seekers with workforce activities leading to meaningful employment. These include creating a plan for job stability, finding a fulfilling career path, and advancing in the workplace.

Through programs like CLASS (Climbing Ladders Achieving Success and Security), Path to Purpose, and GEM (Greater Economic Mobility), Workforce Services is open to any adult job seeker, including those with justice involvement or a history of recent incarceration. Dedicated staff members support clients by helping them develop resumes, find learning opportunities, secure job interviews, and connect with employers.

No matter what your employment needs are, A New Leaf is able to assist. We believe in working with every client to determine their needs and build a custom plan towards the job or career that meets your financial and personal goals.

Workforce services are delivered across the Valley. By offering support in domestic violence shelters, homeless shelters, and other locations, A New Leaf ensures that all the resources someone could need are available. Resources are open to all adult job seekers.

community partners
